20. Conclusion

1. Note: I numbered and labelled my slides to help you see all the components. You DON'T need to label them but make sure you have all the parts!
  2. Keep your text short; this is about the images. Remember: a picture is worth 1000 words!
  3. Choose high resolution images. They look better. When you insert your images, make sure you arrange them so there is room for the text!
  4. Do not deviate from the pre-write. Make sure you are following the argument writing format!
